"The Girl of the Golden West." David Belasco's drama of California in the days of '49, which comes to the opera house next Saturday night, may be said to be based upon the following quotation from an early history of California. Such an impression did the work make upon Mr.
Belasco that they are reprinted at the top of each program announcing the performances. "Whether or not they fit the atmosphere of the play can best be judged by their perusal: "In those strange days, people coming from God knows where—joined forces in that far western land, and according to the rude custom of the camp, they very names were soon lost and unrecorded, and here they struggled, laughed, gambled, cursed, killed, loved and worked out their strange destinies in a manner incredible to us of today. Of one thing only are we sure—they lived."

May Live 100 Years.

The chances for living a full century are excellent in the case of Mrs. Jennie Duncan of Haynesville, Me., now 70 years old. She writes: "Electric Bitters cured me of chronic dyspepsia of 20 years' standing, and made me feel as well and strong as a young girl." Electric Bitters cure stomach and liver diseases, blood disorders, general debility, and bodily weakness. Sold on a guarantee at Red Cross pharmacy. Price only 50c.

The Best Food to Make Hens Lay.

The extremely high prices that have prevailed for eggs during the past few years have emphasized more than ever the need of some food to make hens lay in cold weather. The best is none too good, especially when it can be obtained at a moderate price. G. H. Why-land of Valcour, N. Y., expresses his ideas on the subject in the following letter. He says: "I think 'Page's Perfected Poultry Food' is the best food to make hens lay that is on the market."

Any one sending his address on a postal card to C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., and mentioning this paper, will receive by mail, free, postpaid, a sample package of "Page's Perfected Poultry Food."

"Had dyspepsia or indigestion for Bitters cured me."—J. H. Walker, Sun-

As to Style

THE Style of the "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe is proverbial. The time was when woman's feet were sacrificed to style. A stylish shoe was expected to be uncomfortable. But then came the "Dorothy Dodd" idea that Style should be one of the chief comforts in a woman's shoe.
Simply by following Nature's lines of the feet, the "Dorothy Dodd" was made at once the most stylish as well as the most comfortable of shoes.
